In an effort to get to know you all and meet your individual needs you are going to create a circle map to tell me & the class a little about yourselves! You can use the example below or my example in class.

Step 1: Make a copy of the circle map below. Make sure to add your preferred name and pronouns in the center circle.

Step 2: Within the outside circle, brainstorm some ideas that show others who you are. These can be things you like to do, favorites (food, music, subject), or hobbies. These should be color coded or sectioned off.

Step 2.5: In a different color or section tell me about you as a student. How do you learn best? (quiet environment, hands-on, listening, readings, etc.) What do you want to learn about this year? What are you curious about? What are your strengths as a student?

Step 3: Inside the frame (outside of the circle) I want you to write down any people/names who are important to you or have influenced your lives.

Please help me get to know you. I can better plan out our year together when I know who you are as a learner and who you are outside of this classroom. Thank you so much and welcome back!

Do you have a nickname or shortened version of your name you prefer to go by?

If you would like, please tell me your preferred pronouns. You don't HAVE to list anything here if you don't want to.

Do you work? If so, where? How many hours/week?

Are you involved in extracurricular activities? What are they?

Tell me a little about you as a learner. What activities help you learn best? (note taking, group work, projects, reading, writing, discussions, etc.)

Of the activities listed in the previous question, which do you enjoy least and why?

What is your favorite subject in school? Why?

Do you have any hesitations about being in this class? (Regarding the teacher, the subject, others in the class, etc.)

In your opinion, is it important to study history? Why or why not?

Are you taking any AP classes? If so, which ones?

I build a class playlist and play your songs at random times throughout the year. List one or more SCHOOL APPROPRIATE songs (and artist if you know it!) that you would like to put on our playlist.
